

House Republican Press Release

January 3, 2006
Press Office: 860-240-8700

Rep. Giuliano To Hold Office Hours for Constituents in Old Saybrook, Westbrook

Seeks Input from Residents as 2006 Legislative Session Nears

State Representative Marilyn Giuliano, R-23rd District, will hold office hours for constituents on Saturday, January 14th in Old Saybrook and Westbrook.

Representative Giuliano will conduct office hours in Old Saybrook at the Acton Library's upstairs Conference Room from 9 a.m. until 10:15 a.m.; and at the Westbrook Public Library's lower level Conference Room from 10:30 a.m. until 12 noon. No appointments are necessary.

"The 2006 legislative session, which gets underway February 8th and adjourns May 3rd, lasts for only about three-months," Representative Giuliano said. "Because the session is a short one, we need to research and draft our legislative proposals as soon as possible if they are to have any chance of becoming law."

"I set my legislative goals and priorities based on what I hear from the people of the 23rd District before and during the legislative session. Although many Old Saybrook and Westbrook residents already have contacted me about issues they hope the General Assembly will address this year, I would like to hear from as many of you as possible before the session convenes," Representative Giuliano said. "If you have concerns you'd like to share with me about any issue of importance to our towns or our state, please feel free to drop by the Acton Library or the Westbrook Library on Saturday, January 14th."

Representative Giuliano also can be reached at her Hartford office by calling 1-800-842-1423; via e-mail at Marilyn.Giuliano@housegop.state.ct.us; by FAX at 1-860-240-0207, or at home at 395-1107.